NOTES

On account of the unusual circumstances existing this year, certain readjustments have been made in the Organization Section of the Register to indicate persons assigned to key positions created since November 1, 1941.

The within-grade promotions effective on October 1, 1941 under the Ramspeck act were deferred until too late to be included in this issue of the Register.

Please report to the Division of Research and Publication of the Department any error found in this Register.

ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT

THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Secretary of State, who is the highest ranking Cabinet member, is the head of the Department of State. Upon him devolves the principal responsibility, under the President, for the determination of the policy of the Government in relation to international problems. He is charged with the conduct of negotiations pertaining to the protection of American rights and interests throughout the world, and the promotion of beneficial intercourse between the United States and other countries. He also performs certain domestic duties, such as having custody of the seal of the United States and publishing the laws enacted by Congress.
